A warm welcome back to all our children and families.

I hope you have enjoyed the summer break and are ready to enjoy a new school year. It is obvious by the immaculate uniforms, shiny pencil cases and new school bags that the children are ready for the adventures that lie ahead of them this coming year.

We welcome all our new children and their families. Our newly appointed Assistant Head teachers - Miss Trodden and Mr Kilgallen, Miss Thomas our new Reception teacher and Miss Reynolds our new Senior Secretary. I know that they will receive the hand of friendship, your support and care as they embark on their journey here with us.

Mrs Kielstra (acting Deputy Head) and I would like to thank you for your on-going support as we begin our new roles. It is a journey that cannot be taken alone and alongside our highly committed and dedicated staff, Governors, Parish Priests and parish community we look forward to your continued support and prayers. Our aim is to ensure the very best spiritual and educational journey for all our children in a safe and nurturing environment.

Have a lovely weekend.

God bless.

A prayer for the new school year

Dear Lord,

As this new school year commences, please give us strength and guidance so that we can be the best that we can be. Let us welcome our new Reception children with open arms and show them love. Finally let us all, big or small try our best to be a disciple and shine for the Lord
