YEAR 1 : JAMES & ORLA

YEAR 4 : PIPPA & ZUZANNA

Dear Parents and children,

On Wednesday we welcomed the season of Lent with liturgies and blessed ashes from Father Jonathan for Key Stage One and Key Stage 2 attended parish Mass. We were inundated with such positive feedback regarding our children - their wonderful manners, outstanding reverence and excellent participation. We are very proud of you all. Thank you children, staff and parents for starting this holy season with such enthusiasm and keenness. As we walk together for forty days in prayer, fasting and almsgiving let us call on the God Who Speaks to guide and support us.

YEAR 5 : JOANNE & MARCEL

PARKING REMINDER

Parking is available free of charge in the Church / Social Club car park. The zone outside school has double yellow lines, which can on be used to park on if you are a Blue Badge Holder. Mallard Close residents require access to their properties at all times and if they or we, need a fire engine, the police or an ambulance (we have required three so far this year) parking irresponsibly may prevent urgent access in what could be a life-threatening situation.

God bless

Mrs R A Girling

YEAR 6 : SKYE & ALEXA

This week in school we....

We welcomed the season of Lent and received a lovely goodie bag from Miss Trodden to help us during our journey.

Year 5 enjoyed an African Dance Workshop.

Year 1 and 5 (and Mrs Girling) visited Cadbury World.

Mrs Pettigrew and Mrs Wade attended training on the wider curriculum

Soul Singers Club started with Mrs Stephenson and Mrs Barressi.

Year 2 enjoyed using their mathematical skills to weigh and measure their ingredients for making pancakes on Shrove Tuesday.

Years 3, 4 & 6 enjoyed an assembly with Ms Mullin where they learned all about Parliament and how laws are passed.

We welcomed five new children and their families to our school community.

TO BRING GOOD NEWS, TO SHINE FOR YOU.
