Happy holidays everyone!

Dear children, staff, parents and carers,

On behalf of the Governing Body and St Teresa of Calcutta MAC we would like to thank you all for your hard work, support and help this year.

As we returned for our first full year since the pandemic we have worked tirelessly together to ensure our children receive the very best spiritual, social and academic education. This year we have proven this in many ways and was recognised in our recent Outstanding Catholic School Inspection which stated that:

Holy Souls Catholic Primary School is “The BEATING HEART of the community”

We are all proud and privileged to be part of this wonderful community. The support of our Parish family, Canon Jonathan and Father Alex, our Governing Body, our CSEL Professor Ryan, the MAC Board and MAC schools is very much appreciated.

To Year 6, Mr Edwards, Mrs Corrigan and Miss Finn may God bless you keep you safe as you start a new journey. To those families who have been with us for many years - it is not goodbye as we will keep you in our hearts and in our prayers.

We wish you all a happy, safe and restful summer.

God bless

Mrs Girling and Mrs Kielstra
